

RIDDLED by bullets, half the tail shot away, most of the controls damaged and all instruments destroyed, this Flying Fortress, navigated by First Lieutenant Henry Allen West, son of Chief Quartermaster Joshua H. West of the Navy Recruiting Bureau here, limped to its home base "~~at~~" after an air raid on Sicily. This picture of the bomber was released by the Army. —U. S. Army Photo